

SOUTH BIG DATA INNOVATION HUB

A Community Convener for Data Innovation

ALL HANDS MEETING JULY 28 - 30, 2021

Bringing People & Data Together

Join big data influencers from industry, academia, nonprofits, and government to discuss some of the most important topics in data science today:

- ▶ Building Data Science Education and Workforce
- ▶ Promoting Data Sharing and Cyberinfrastructure
- ▶ Addressing Societal Challenges
- ▶ Connecting the Data Community

Our Purpose

Let's do this together.

- ▶ At the South Big Data Hub, we know we make the biggest impact when we work with our neighbors and weave together our strengths.
- ▶ Join us to learn how your work can shine brighter as part of our collective efforts.
- ▶ We look forward to sharing what's new with our members while identifying what's needed to continue to forge a sustainable path forward.

How The South Hub Can Help

We're eager to share what we've discovered through five years of community building with experts across the nation.

- ▶ Our sessions are designed to inspire and continue discovering the community we need to tackle the data science challenges of the future.

Register Today!

Don't miss your chance to be in the room where things happen.
