

CDS 130: Computing for Scientists
Fall 2021 Section 001
Syllabus and Class Policies

Instructor: Dr. Carmen Iasiello
Adjunct Professor
ciasiell@GMU.EDU
571-357-2115 (cell: voice and text)

Mode of Instruction:

(Instructor please choose one of the following and delete the rest)

- This face-to-face (F2F) class meets every Tuesday from 4:30 to 7:10 pm in Innovation Hall 222. Class attendance is mandatory. All students taking this course are required to following the university's public health and safety precautions and procedures outlined on the university's Safe Return to Campus webpage (<https://www2.gmu.edu/safe-return-campus>).

Office and Office Hours:

- Students may contact me anytime via email for help and will hold "Virtual Office Hours" from 5:15-6:00 pm on Wednesday and Friday at this link: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/8750526876?pwd=UkVncjdObmRjQ1h2aW0zUXZZNnJPUT09>.
- I may be contacted using: e-mail, text, and by using the "Ask the Professor" discussion on the left side of the website. My responses on "Ask the Professor" will be available to all class members.
- I will endeavor to answer e-mail questions within 24 hours. Please note that questions received during the weekends may be delayed.
- If I will be away from email for more than one day, times will be posted on the announcement tab in the Blackboard course folder.
- The STARS may announce any General Help Sessions being held on the class website. Sessions will be held via Blackboard Collaborate and/or in person.

CDS-130 STARS:

- STARS working primarily with Section 001 will be Ibraheem Bashatah and Sabina Sheridan.
- STARS will hold "Office Hours" (either in person or virtually) during the week.
- For Section 001, the STARS will be the person who will grade most of your assignments and will be familiar with your work. Your STAR will be contacting you to offer help when we see that you may be having trouble. You are welcome to contact either STAR for help, but please start with your STAR.

We want to help you succeed in CDS-130 and in your GMU career!
