

PROFESSIONAL PREPARATION FOR STEM DISCIPLINES

- ✓ Mason Impact Course: Research & Creative Activities.
- ✓ New Green Leaf Course: Centered on independent, interdisciplinary research framed by SDG2030 Goals.
- ✓ Design project proposals, science communication products, resumes/CVs, and ePortfolios.
- ✓ Explore ethics & bias in research and practice.
- ✓ Gain 21st Century skills and explore STEAM career pathways of tomorrow.

Great option for Juniors and Seniors...

- Seeking to build essential career skills in STEM: research, design, communication, & writing.
- Wishing to prepare for graduate/pre-health admissions, or entry-level employment.
- Ready to plan career steps after Mason.

Online Asynchronous in Fall 2022

No prerequisites | Late adds welcome

Great option for new transfer students

CRN 82818 | 3 credit hours

For more information:

<https://science.gmu.edu/leadershipminor>

Or email khilkerb@gmu.edu

“COS 300 helped me become a successful undergraduate researcher, and now I am confident about my ability to market myself professionally.” -Susan T.