

Diva Crows: Wildlife Rehabilitation Internship

Wildlife Rehabilitation and Education Outreach located in Alexandria VA specializing in Songbirds and Corvids of Northern VA

As an intern with Diva Crows Wildlife Rehab, you will gain valuable experience in the wildlife rehabilitation and humane education and receive hands-on training in all aspects of wildlife rehabilitation:

- Handling, restraint, and capture techniques
- Wildlife husbandry
- Neonate care and feeding
- Wildlife education programs and events

Qualifications:

- Current student or recent college graduate (within two years), enrolled in a degree program in an environmental, animal-related, or educational field
- Ability to lift 50lbs and work hands-on with wildlife
- Current tetanus preferred, but not required
- Ability to work in extreme weather conditions including freezing temperatures, snow and heat
- Excellent time management and organizational skills
- Must be reliable
- Basic knowledge of Virginia wild birds and natural history
- Must have access to own form of transportation
-

Acceptance and Work Schedule:

- Part-time positions work an average of 15 - 20 hours per week
- Flexible scheduling around school/work available
- We do not offer housing/stipends. Internship is unpaid
- Must include cover letter, resume and two professional references

Job Type: Internship

Work Location: Alexandria, VA

Benefits:

- Flexible schedule
- Hands-on experience with wildlife
- Certificate of service
- Public speaking experience
- Potential for full time apprenticeship

To Apply:

Send required information to divacrows1@gmail.com

- Resume
- Cover Letter
- Two Letters of Recommendation