

Jones-Tschiemer Ph.D. Fellowships in Environmental Science and Policy at George Mason University

Purpose

Jones-Tschiemer Ph.D. Fellowships will be awarded to up to four incoming doctoral students for the academic year 2024-2025. Two fellowships will be given to students with advisors at Mason's Potomac Environmental Research and Education Center, and two fellowships will be given to successful applicants working with other faculty. The Fellowship package will consist of a Teaching Assistantship from the Department of Environmental Science and Policy or the Department of Biology along with Fellowship funds from the J-T Fellowship Fund.

Eligibility Criteria

- Applicants must be accepted into in the Environmental Science and Public Policy Doctoral Program.
- Applicants must have an advisor/committee chair who sponsors them for the Jones-Tschiemer Ph.D. Fellowship

Award Funding

- $37,000 stipend annually (20 hours/week, $31,000 Academic Year, $6000 Summer term)
- Tuition waiver: up to 9 tuition credits per semester at the in-state rate